

Historic Wilmington Foundation 2009 Preservation Award Winners

City of Wilmington – David Brinkley Preservationist of the Year Award. USO Building restoration and rehabilitation.

John Monteith – Rehabilitation Award for LEED certified design and rehabilitation at 32 N. Front Street.

Francisco Castillo – Restoration Award for the restoration of the Dannenbaum House at 221 N. Fifth Street.

Tim O’Callaghan – Restoration Award for the restoration of the Curtis-Foster House at 114 N. 6th Street.

Roman & Darcy Zeller – Compatible New Infill Construction Award for the construction of a new compatible infill at 1904 Chestnut Street.

Gary Anderson - Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of 507 N. 5th Street.

Tony Ward – Compatible New Infill Construction Award for the construction of a new compatible infill at 414 Nun Street.

Doug Ausbon – Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of 406 N. 6th Street.

Matt Scharf – Adaptive Reuse and Restoration Award for the adaptive reuse and restoration of 411 Chestnut Street.

David Spetrino – Compatible New Infill Construction Award for construction of a new compatible infill at Tanyard Parish on Front Street.

Stan and Emily Hollingsworth – Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of 319 S. 6th Street.

Carlton Yedinak – Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of the Wessell-Harper House at 508 S. Front Street.

Boni Hall and the New Hanover County School Board – Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of Wrightsboro School.

Michael Cobb and the New Hanover County School Board – Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of the Forest Hills School.

Mark Evans – Merit Award for a preservation sale & initiative for 620-622 N. 4th and 411 Chestnut Street properties.

Henry Johnson – Merit Award for the restoration of St. James Episcopal Church Tower.

Linda Smith and Toronya Ezell of the AMEZ Housing Community Development Corporation – Merit Award