

Historic Wilmington Foundation 2008 Preservation Award Winners

Janet K. Seapker & Edward F. Turberg – Katherine Howell Award – Recipient has displayed commitment, leadership, and service to the Historic Wilmington Foundation in helping promote the Foundation's mission and, consequently greatly benefited the community.

Southport Historical Society – Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of the Old Jail in Southport.

Renee McGill-Cox – Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of the 1898 McGowan-Davis house at 809 Grace Street.

HMS Properties, LLC (Clark Hipp, Rick Best & Bill Mason) – Adaptive Reuse Award for the renovation and restoration of the A David Building at 228 N. Front Street.

Plantation Building Corporation – Compatible New Infill Construction Award for the construction of a new compatible infill at the New York Hatters at 105 Grace Street.

Plantation Building Corporation – Compatible New Infill Construction Award for the construction of a new compatible infill at 2009 Pender Avenue.

Plantation Building Corporation – Compatible New Infill Construction Award for the construction of a new compatible infill at 10 Church Street.

Sam Dunn – Restoration Award for the complete restoration of 613 Chestnut Street.

Christian Cardamone – Compatible New Infill Construction Award for the construction of a new compatible infill at 811 McCumber Alley.

Bill Sisson & Joy Miller – Rehabilitation Award for the rehabilitation of the Shores Acres Model Home at 121 Live Oak Drive on Harbor Island.

Dietsch & Dietsch Architecture – Adaptive Reuse Award the renovation and restoration of 112-114 N. Front Street now home to their office and the Zoo Toy Store.

Lori & Dan Camacho – Rehabilitation and Restoration Award for the complete restoration and rehabilitation of the Phineas Fanning House at 206 Orange Street.

St. Johns Episcopal Parish – Restoration Award for the restoration of the Lebanon Chapel.

Pender County Historical Society Watch List – Merit Award Wilmington Area Rebuilding Ministries – Merit Award

Dolores Williams – Professional Merit Award

Eric Kozen – Professional Merit Award

Gene Ayscue – Professional Merit Award